What I Need to Know

Good day Kids! Welcome to our new lesson in English 3.

After going through this module, you are expected to identify commonly used possessive pronouns and use them in a sentence.

Enjoy your journey. Good luck!

What's In

Directions: Read the sentences carefully. Write the correct possessive pronoun to complete the sentence.

1. (I own the phone.)
The phone is _____.
2. (He owns the paper boat.)
The paper boat is _____.
3. (She owns the dog.)
The dog is _____.
4. (We own the green car.)
The green car is _____.
5. (They own the pet shop.)
The pet shop is _____.

What's New

Directions: Read the poem. Take note of the words in the poem that tell things belong to someone.

Are these Mine, Yours, Hers or His?

By Ma. Criselda C. Ochang

On a table, I saw a guava, a flower, and a bean.
A guava, a flower, and a bean?
Who owns all these, Ben?
These might have been taken from my garden.

Oh Ben, is this guava yours?
Ben, oh Ben, is this flower yours?
Ben, is this bean yours?

Oh, Lina, is this guava yours?
Lina, oh Lina, is this flower yours?
Lina, is this bean yours?

Ben owns the guava. It is his.
Lina owns the flower. It is hers.
And I own the bean. It is mine.

Comprehension Questions

Directions: Read and understand the questions carefully. Write your answer on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What are on the table?

2. Who owns the guava?

3. Who owns the flower?

4. Who owns the bean?

5. Where do the guava, flower and bean taken from?

What is it

A possessive pronoun can be used alone. It's mine. It shows ownership. They tell the reader that something belongs to somebody or something.

These are the possessive pronouns and the subjects they represent:

Subject	Possessive Pronoun
I	Mine
You (singular)	Yours
He	His
She	Hers
It	Its
We	Ours
They	Theirs

Look at these sentences.

1. I own the bean. It is mine.
2. We love the garden. It is ours.
3. Ben, is this your bean? No, it is yours.
4. Ben owns the guava. It is his.
5. Lina owns the flower. It is hers.
6. Ben and Lina owns a big garden. It is theirs.

In the first sentence, I own the bean. It is mine. The word mine means that the bean belongs to me.

In the second sentence, we love the garden. It is ours. The word ours means that the garden belongs to us.

In the third sentence, Ben, is this your bean? No, it is yours. The word yours means that the bean belongs to the person spoken to.

In the fourth sentence, Ben owns the guava. It is his. The word his means that the guava belongs to Ben, a boy.

In the fifth sentence, Lina owns the flower. It is hers. The word hers means that the flower belongs to Lina, a girl.

In the last sentence, Ben and Lina owns a big garden. It is theirs. The word theirs means that the big garden belongs to Ben and Lina.

Remember:

Possessive pronouns show ownership.

We use his, when the owner is a boy.

We use hers, when the owner is a girl.

We use mine, when the owner is the speaker.

We use ours, when the speaker is one of the owners.

We use yours, when the owner is the person you are speaking to.

We use theirs, when the owners are boys or/and girls you are speaking about.

They are usually placed after the verb or at the end of the sentence.

Trees

by Joyce Kilmer

I think that I shall never see a poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair;
Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.
